

SANITIZED GROUND CHIA

CÓDIGO: FIB0058

Description:

chia (Salvia hispanica L.) is an annual plant species, summer, belonging to the family of Lamiaceae, native to the northwest of Central America (Mexico, Guatemala). The sanitized ground chia appears as a regular powder gray to brown.

Organoleptic Specifications:

Appearance: Regular dust.

Color: Gray to brown.

Physicochemical Specifications:

Passing 24 mesh: Min. 80%

Passing 14 mesh: Min. 97%

Microbiological Specifications:

Total count: Max. 10,000 CFU / g

total coliforms: Max. 150 CFU / g

Fungi and yeasts: Max. 150 CFU / g

E.coli: Max. 3 MPN / g

Storage and transport conditions:

Keep tightly closed in a cool, dry place, away from moisture and heat.

Life of anaquel: 6 months.

Applications:

Baked goods, processed foods, food additives, Confectionery, Nutrition for a healthy weight, nutrition for digestive health.

Recommended serving:

According to application, 30g of dietary IDR / day fiber [NOM-051- Scf1-SSA1-2010]

Certifications:

ISO 22000

GMP

Kosher

CONTACT INFORMATION:

sales@americanaturalingredients.com

business@americanaturalingredients.com

www.americanaturalingredients.com

USA WH: San Diego, CA 92154

USA Office: Las Vegas, NV 89104

Facility: Jalisco, México 45236